

We strive for a united house of labour that operates on principles of true solidarity and movement building. Bea, Lily and Siobhan are outstanding activists who share these goals.

CUPE's National Executive Board is proud to support these three remarkable women and endorse Team Unite.

